DISTRESSING ACCIDENT.

LITTLE WILLIE MAERTENS
FALLS TWENTY-FIVE FEET.

Result of Tree Climbing at School.

A distressing accident occurred during the noon recess at Punahou Preparatory school yesterday. While playing in the yard some of the smaller boys indulged in that favorite pastime of tree climbing, which resulted in the fall and serious injury of Willie Maertens son of Mr. Maertens of the firm of Hoffschlager & Co.

While in the tree the branch upon which the little fellow was climbing broke and precipitated him to the ground, a distance of about twenty-five feet. He struck upon his left side, dislocating one of his wrists, bruising his head and sustaining internal injuries.

The lad was at once carried into the school room in an unconscious condition and a messenger was dispatched for Dr. J. S. McGrew who arrived shortly afterwards. The poor child was suffering great agony when the doctor arrived and his cries were heartrending. His parents were also sent for and were soon upon the scene stricken with sorrow.

Dr. McGrew gave the boy all the relief possible under the circumstances and after temporarily dressing his wounds, he was taken home in a hack by his mother. Dr. McGrew accompanied and after a thorough examination pronounced the lad to be seriously injured. Word was received last night that the little sufferer was laying in a critical condition.

The accident cast a gloom over the entire school and soon after its occurrence the pupils were dismissed for the day. The deepest sympathy is expressed for the bright little fellow injured and for his afflicted parents.

AT KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOL.

Term Closing Exercises Held Yesterday Morning.

The attendance at the annual recitations of Kamehameha school yesterday was not very large. Revs. E. G. Beckwith, O. P. Emerson, S. L. Desha and J. K. Josepa were among those present who took an especial interest in the exercises of the students. The first class was conducted by Mr. D. S. Ruevsky, and the exercises consisted of advanced geometry, political economy and English literature. The students showed high proficiency in their studies, answering the questions put to them quite readily and correctly. Mr. R. B. Anderson examined the second class in algebra, general history and paraphrasing. Mr. Anderson is a live teacher and he understands how to get the most out of his pupils. The scholars by their bright and ready answers showed the result of thorough training. Mr. G. H. Babb conducted the third class in proportion, compositions and word studies. The fourth class was carried on by Mr. U. Thompson. Their exercises in percentage and object lessons were highly appreciated. The two lowest classes were taught by Mrs. G. H. Babb and Miss Katherine Pope, and they also show the excellent training given them.

In the assembly hall were placed on exhibition the work of the classes in blacksmith and carpentering work. The ironworks were much admired for their beauty and neatness of finish. The exhibits of the class in carpentering consisted of highly-polished koa and koa calabashes, and various kinds of koa tables, etc. The exhibits were of a very high order.

At noon the school and audience were invited by retiring President Oleson to go to the campus in front of the school-building to witness the tree-planting exercises carried on by the senior class.

James and Isaac Harbottle made addresses in Hawaiian, while Hoonani Kane delivered the farewell address to the class of 1893 in English. The exercises were concluded by the school singing the Kamehameha song.

Boston, flagship of the present Pacific squadron, so that she may return to the United States and be docked, cleaned and put in order after her long service."

The bark Routenbeck arrived off port last with a cargo of coal from Newcastle, N.S.W. She will be towed into port.

The barkentine Discovery sailed yesterday for San Francisco with 10,463 bags or 647 tons of sugar valued at $50,549.

Projected Departures.—June 22, S. S. Alameda for Honolulu and the Colonies; July 3, S. S. China for Honolulu, Yokohama and Hongkong; August 3, S. S. Oceanic for Honolulu, Yokohama and Hongkong; barks Andrew Welch and Ceylon, barkentines Hilo, Planter, S. G. Wilder and W. H. Dimond for Honolulu; schooner Allen A. for Mahukona; brigantine J. D. Spreckels for Kahului.

The fishing firm of Paladini & Co. has commenced suit to obtain salvage from John D. Spreckels & Co. for having saved the brig John D. Spreckels from destruction.

The libel papers state that at 3:30 A.M., May 21st, the fishing boat U. S. Grant was near Point Reyes. It saw signals of distress being sent up near a reef and a rocky bluff near Point Diablo. There the captain of the Grant found the Spreckels drifting on to the rocks and in danger of being wrecked. According to the libel papers the Grant rescued the brig just as the crew was about to abandon her. The Spreckels was then towed into San Francisco bay safely. It appears that Captain Christianson of the John D. Spreckels failed to make any contract for the amount to be paid the fishing boat when he asked for a tow to safety. The fishermen went to Spreckels & Co. after bringing the brig in and asked for $6000 salvage. This was refused as extortionate, and the suit has resulted. The value of the vessel is placed at $50,000 and that of the cargo of sugar at $15,000.

At last the computations by the naval engineers upon the results attained by the cruiser New York upon her trial trip have been completed. The report has not yet reached the Navy Department, but Secretary Herbert has received a telegram from Commodore Belknap as follows: "Speed of the New York, from close computation and corrected for tidal currents, was 21 knots."

J. D. Spreckels & Bros. have libelled the ferry boat Tiburon for salvage. She was burned, partially, some months ago, and it is claimed that it was due only to the Spreckels' tugs and fire boats that she escaped utter destruction.

The old man-of-war Omaha will hereafter be used as a quarantine hulk at San Francisco.

The tug companies asked the government $7000 for towing the Spanish caravels from New York around Chicago. The Philadelphia Ledger makes the pointed assertion that it was money in Columbus' pocket that they were no tug companies here when he struck this land of the free.

The Pacific Improvement Company will make another attempt to raise the collier San Pedro, which was wrecked near Victoria in November, 1891. Captain Lachlan, a steamship man of New York is to do the work. The steamer is worth $350,000, and $150,000 has been expended trying to raise her already. It is estimated that it will cost $75,000 to repair her when raised.
